That means the occurrence and development of Liu Sanjie’s folk songs are due to the production and life, customs and ceremonies, song fair and song show, involving multi-level content such as nature, society, culture and performance. The ecological environment is just like the fertile soil that nourishes Liu Sanjie’s songs. It is one of the key factors for avoiding fuzziness, conceptualization and formalization, and realizing her survival and development. Mr. Zhong Jingwen has a strong opinion about Liu Sanjie’s folk songs and its ecological environment — “Liu Sanjie is the daughter of Ge Xu customs”. It can be seen from this that Liu Sanjie’s folk songs are “thriving” in the unique ecological cultural environment of Guangxi the Zhuang people’s Ge Xu. 2. THREE ASPECTS OF THE INHERITANCE AND INNOVATION OF LIU SANJIE’S FOLK SONGS FROM THE PERSPECTIVE OF ECOLOGICAL CULTURE OF GE XU

2.1. The Perspective of Ecological Environment

Ge Xu is a traditional singing festival held by the Zhuang people at a specific time and place. In Ge Xu, people sing to each other, meet friends by singing songs and show their love by singing songs. Singing songs together is an ancient custom of the Zhuang nationality, with a wide range of people and a long history. So, later generations called this kind of custom Ge Xu. This cultural phenomenon continues to influence and infiltrate the spiritual world of south of the Five Ridges ethnic groups. Especially for the Zhuang people living in Guangxi, they worship Liu Sanjie as the song fairy and the song god, which is closely connected with the Ge Xu culture, thus forming the large-scale folk cultural activities such as the traditional Ge Xu and song festival. Ge Xu is usually held on hillsides and mountains during the slack farming season or during festivals such as Spring Festival and Mid-Autumn Festival. Usually young men and women sing folk songs mainly, but also throw embroidered balls, touch colourful eggs, light fireworks and hold other recreational activities. Liu Sanjie’s culture is related to the survival, reproduction and fate of the nation, and is a culture full of human feelings and humanity.

Ge Xu has been prevalent in the west of Guangxi since ancient times, especially along the Left and Right River and Hongshui river where the Zhuang people live. It is worth paying attention to that, in the legends of Liu Sanjie’s songs or fairy sites, most of them are some caves. Such as: Liuzhou Yufeng Mountain, Carp Rock in Guangxi, Qixing Cave in Guilin, Liu Xian Cave near Yulin Water and Moon Rock, Liu San Cave under Ma’an Stone in Rong County, Laojun Cave in Rongshui, Bailong Cave in Yishan and so on. For example, in Jingxi area of the Zhuang nationality region in Guangxi province, the Ge Xu drive was called “out of the cave”. The Cunxiao Cave Ge Xu in Tianyang is well known in You River zone. On August 15, the song fair near Liuzhou Yufeng Mountain Carp Rock, is still popular, and since ancient times there has been singing songs: “singing songs in Ge Xu. Singing songs in Ge Xu. It’s so happy to take part in Ge Xu and you can enjoy yourselves very much. If you do not believe, you could see Liu Sanjie, singing to sit carp rock.” [1]All these show to a great extent that the Ge Xu activities in ancient times were held in or outside specific caves where people used to live. Around Liu Sanjie in the legend of the song rock site, may be the ancient people once gathered singing places. Therefore, there are still many caves for people to look forward to the tourist resort, or for the traditional song polder field. It not only adds legendary color to the vividness of Liu Sanjie’s story, but also becomes a historical witness of the long and colorful folk singing life.

With the correct attitude of the Communist Party of China (CPC), revolutionaries or the masses supporting the revolution composed and sang many folk songs praising the Party, the Red Army and propagating revolutionary ideas. They used folk songs in the polders to publicize the revolution and mobilize the masses. Many of the revolutionary folk songs of the great Revolution are still being circulated around the Left and Right Jiang. After liberation, with the development of politics, economy and culture, the singing activities of the Zhuang people also developed in the light of the party’s ethnic policy. Not only are there singing parties before and after large mass gatherings, but also on the evening of the polder day or after the screening of films or performances, young men and women often gather to sing antiphonal songs, forming temporary “singing parties”. In addition, great changes have taken place in the content of traditional singing parties. In particular, many departments concerned have done a lot of work to guide and transform “Ge Xu”. We help old singers to raise their awareness, actively train new singers, organize folk song competitions and carry out other beneficial literary and sports activities, so that the “Ge Xu” will develop in a healthier direction. After the “Cultural Revolution”, “Ge Xu” activities in different places have become active again. From the Party Central Committee to the district Party Committee, all reiterated that “Ge Xu” is one of the Zhuang people’s customs. And we should respect the Zhuang people and their customs. Under the guidance of local governments, “Ge Xu” activities have become very lively, adding many new ideas to the traditional content.

2.2. Ge Xu Activities Which Are Reflected by Liu Sanjie’s Folk Songs

Some of the suitors were tongued and lamented by Liu Sanjie, who recruited a husband by singing songs. There are Liu Sanjie in the face of the singers’ questioning and answer, and so on. At the same time, wherever there is a story of Liu Sanjie spread, there are almost all the relics of Liu Sanjie’s songs. Liu Sanjie ballad is the general name of folk songs and folk songs spread in south of the Five Ridges area. Liu Sanjie’s ballad is one of the main forms of the Zhuang folk music, which has been cultivated by Liu Sanjie, a “song fairy” and “song saint”, and numerous the Zhuang folk singers for a long time. The Zhuang people sing songs at home, and they also hold festive gathering activities at specific times and places. Ge Xu of the Zhuang people is divided into two seasons: spring and autumn. Most of the Ge Xu in spring takes place after the Spring Festival. The grandest Ge Xu in spring is on the third day of the third lunar month. And autumn is more in a period of time after the Mid-Autumn Festival, for August 15 or September 9, October 10, etc.. The songs sung at the song fair are mainly about young men and women pursuing beautiful love ideals. Ge Xu usually lasts for one day, but there are two or three days in a row. In addition to the young people, there are also middle-aged and old people and young people. Old people and children mainly “watch the war”, appreciate, comment, some old singers participate in the activities, but for young people as advice to modify the lyrics. Ge Xu is a stage for young men and women. Young singers express their feelings directly with their talents, so the whole Ge Xu is very lively.
