In the novel begins by Dafan expressed just in high school and proud of Sun Shaoping sensitive heart, a desire to care for a sense of helplessness but powerless. That tear or two, worth a thousand words to tell, like Lu Xun's novels sharp dagger, tingling the reader's heart, which appeals to the era of social discontent poverty and backwardness, diffuse criticism of various aspects of society "exaggerated, voluntarism, taking class struggle as the key link "phenomenon is not pragmatic, realistic satire has been a breach, chanting" fatherland situation is excellent, "the" big hat "slogan hypocrisy, heralded a change of era is coming.

The two main contradiction: the contradiction former magistrates court in west Tianfu Jun-led camp and headed to FENG Shi-wide between the camps; contradiction with dual water village, led by Sun Shaoan camp and headed to Tianfu Tang camp between. Two major tragic love is: "childhood" type of love farmers and state cadres Tian Sun Shaoan Runye between; Shaoping love coal miners and big reporter Tian Xiaoxia between the provincial capital. Them from the back indirectly criticized the harsh environment of that era killed many families good hope and vision, ironically those in pursuit of fame and fortune and political nothingness destroy multiple family happy life "bureaucracy." But this author to express their emotions, tactful narrates and did not let his warmth flow in the sentimental self-pity, did not let themselves dissatisfied with condensation as hard and icy hate the world doctrine.

The Thinking about Life is Embodied in Lu Yao Novel

Although Lu Yao fiction mingled Realism and Romanticism, but meantime everywhere embodies the "life", "the value of human existence", "view of the outside world" and so on in China. Outstanding literary works often represent the ethos of an era beacon, it can inspire readers to positive thinking, spiritual inspiration, thinking of resonance.

Read "Ordinary World", you will find Lu Yao has been advocating in which people carry out adaptations: the full play to the initiative to pursue adaptation practices, ways of thinking, lifestyle, life-changing value terms, which inevitably intertwined with friendship, affection, love, experiencing extraordinary ordinary laborers, especially intellectuals (in Sun Shaoping example) to adhere to the ideals and arduous. In the novel, the authors did not comment throughout which the hero's pursuit of life good or bad, or not advanced values, the pursuit of life motivated or not, but through a subtle way of human nature and express beauty in the guide. After the novel's most compelling than the double water reform village "Zhiwei" Sun Yuting, jars village "hobo" King BMO metamorphosis happened to them in the family's appeal, eventually come to their senses, repentant, willing to books sub-sub-man, working sense. In the author's opinion, such a bridge to maintain the delicate relationship between people than emotion, and this emotion is yellow land gives life unique affection child labor in this piece of land - one full of emotional appeal, full of emotion beauty of human nature.

According to statistics, real-life Lu Yao could be called "reformers", his enthusiasm to participate in the reform among the flood, but as a Marxist, he has not been booming bustling economic development the phenomenon of red halo mind, but rather calmly, to critically observe this change and thinking, in particular, the courage to change the initial transformation of various social atmosphere with realism narrates it. Lu Yao real life itself is one to rely on their own efforts to come out from the countryside intellectuals, does not preclude living in a big city, chasing their own "dream city", after all, out of the farm gate is the number of generations of rural people have been craving something. As the novel out of high school to become the village of Sun Shaoping private teacher for the whole family brought happiness and hope; then accounts of migrant workers will migrate to xanthan surrounding ditch, city residents make the whole family happy for a long time; recruitment to the teeth back Bay Coal, worker status to obtain, once again let the whole family happy for a long time. The text of the Sun Shaoping perseverance and suffering experienced by the course, faithfully tells the rural intelligentsia change values and integrate into city life is not easy, it is also the author wanted to use Sun Shaoping experience the value of life to express their thinking: only never stops walking in the struggle on the road, adhere better vision in mind, even if the process of implementation in full of thorns and the twists and turns, but ultimately aspire is wonderful. Lu Yao in the novel on to work in the cities of Sun Shaoping, Jinbo, Kim Soo, spearmint, Tianrun Sheng and so full of compassion and respect, compassion is their experience of suffering course, respect that they fought for the dream and spirit, and whether in poor or rich era has remained the same noble soul.

Relevant literature, when writing this novel, Lu Yao had determined the structure of the work: the work time span set at the beginning of 1975 to the beginning of the decade between 1985, trying to show the full range of urban and rural social life in China during this period major changes occurred. Throughout the book, the novel has reached reflect the enormous changes with the vast urban and social picture of the objectives, in particular to show the previous decade and a decade between the new sharp contrast, triggering the reader food for thought. During which more clearly reflects the move towards a rapid growth experienced during the times change, whether it is personal, or social environment has been too much change, but people between fast economic development and cultural attitudes lag or inevitably lead to many social conflicts, especially in terms of social values change more obvious. Social values change some adverse impact, but also caused the reformers of reflection: the material civilization progress has been made under the premise of how to promote spiritual civilization developed simultaneously. The material developed era, there are still many maintained a noble spiritual pursuit of people, but in substance achieve... rapid economic development now, should assume more social strengthen the masses of life, values, worldview responsibility for education, the correct socialist core values and vigorously carry forward the practice to make it into the middle of the daily life of the masses, the people become like air "calcium" a good source of daily use and become whole people feel behavior guidelines.

"Where the masterpieces of the text, we must first have a heart can be handed down." Lu Yao, "Ordinary World" to charismatic gentle narrative plot, the hearts of the sense of enlightenment to resort to his writings made by the hero as with feelings, with realistic, romantic, tragic mood changes and ways of the world will be in the environment, the relationship between reality, the pursuit of a better performance of the best, to chase a dream, the pursuit of changing ordinary workers, ordinary intellectuals full of respect, every a living body in his writing are equal, are subject to the author's heartfelt respect and compassion. The novel addition to the story so that the reader moved outside, more value is the author of the story behind the spectator's attitude deep humanity, thinking and exploration of values issues. Excellent literary works rich content both rooted in people's daily life, but also higher than life, is the product of people's living practice, "Ordinary World" Lu Yao with plain simple life experiences will describe the inner world of ordinary workers the most emotion deep, ready to reveal the love of the yellow land, living on the loess Plateau workers love for ordinary workers love the people, love of country's responsibility and moral consciousness.
