Back in history, 1981, China women's volleyball team took the first World Cup, the whole nation is exciting. Subsequently, women's volleyball team to "hard work, for" faith, made "five". Women's volleyball athletes training hard, win glory for the country, showing the spirit of sports has a huge incentive to all walks of life.

In the Atlanta Olympic Games, China sports delegation to 16 gold scores ranked fourth in the world, after the game, "China sports newspaper" unity, from theory and practice, unity of tradition and reality sports unique and universal social unity three aspects of research and analysis, introduced the country first dedication science realistic law-abidingsolidarity hard work, six article systematically discusses the Chinese sports spirit reports. The Chinese sports spirit is an important part of China's socialist spiritual civilization, is the precious wealth of the Chinese nation, various industries, all fronts in the country comrades must vigorously carry forward the rejuvenation of the Chinese nation, for the spirit of patriotism, vigorously carry forward the indomitable top-notch spirit of revolutionary heroism, innovation, ability to climb the peak of one heart and one mind. Push forward the great cause of building socialism with Chinese characteristics.

With the continuous development of the times, Chinese sports people in the years of practice, summed up that the glory of the country, selfless dedication, scientific truth-seeking, law-abiding, unity and cooperation, hard work is the main content of the Chinese sports spirit, Chinese sports spirit has become the common spiritual wealth of the whole society. In August 31, 2013, the Twelfth National Games opening ceremony, general secretary Xi Jinping met to participate in the national mass sports advanced units and advanced individuals in recognition, emphasizing the national sports system advanced collective and advanced workers commended the will on behalf of the Chinese sports spirit, not easily won, precious, to inherit, carry forward innovation.

3. Sports spirit and socialist core values got the same requirements

Chinese sports spirit as the ideological core and the fundamental driving force for development, is an important content of advanced culture in China, is an important carrier of socialist ideological and moral construction, embodies the spirit of patriotism. Since the establishment of China's sports, who work hard, forming a fine style of be handed down from age to age, tenacious struggle and glory for the country. According to the actual physical education and social development, to win glory for the country as the core of the Chinese sports spirit, is an important part of the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation spirit, in the rapid economic and social development background, to be given a clear sense of the times.

Dedication embodies the sense of social responsibility, is the spiritual pillar of the Chinese nation, the yearning of the Chinese nation. For individuals, not only reflects a person's attitude towards life, but also reflects a person's moral and moral behavior. Many scholars at all times and in all countries respected selfless thought. Selfless dedication is the highest level of dedication, is the highest realm of virtue. Selfless dedication is the inevitable requirement of social existence and development, is a high degree of moral self-discipline, is the specific manifestation of altruistic behavior.

Carry forward the spirit of scientific and realistic elements is the spirit of China's sports front since the reform and opening up, new connotation is the spirit of the Chinese nation. I believe that science, relying on science, seeking truth from facts, breaking the dogma, pioneering and innovative, not only the work style of competitive sports, but also the need to implement the principles of all walks of life. Great achievements have been made in China's sports industry and the spirit of scientific, realistic and pioneering spirit of Chinese sports workers. The real core technology, the key technology is not to buy, we must rely on independent innovation. In the field of sports, science and innovation is a magic weapon for winning the competition, the fundamental reason Chinese table tennis prosperous is to adhere to the scientific training, continuous innovation, and gradually formed, qinxuekulian, refuse to be cowed or submit into a continuous, innovative spirit of table tennis.

In the sports arena, the athletes should obey the discipline of sports training, in strict accordance with the protocol, and even in daily life should be subject to strict constraints. In the competition, we must strictly abide by the rules of competition, respect all personnel at home and abroad. Obey the law also embodies the fair competition in the occupation moral. At present, the socialist market economy is the economic equity and credit economy, in the process of development, to vigorously carry forward the spirit of fair play Chinese athletes law-abiding, consciously abide by the order of the market and competition rules, and jointly safeguard the orderly operation of the socialist market economy.

4. Sports spirit and socialist core values got the consistency goal

The practice of sports spirit, is the motherland first for sports spirit into practice, to create a good sports culture atmosphere, enhance cultural soft power of the Chinese nation, and strive to promote all-round development of China's economy, politics, culture and society, to improve our country's comprehensive strength of purpose. Practice the socialist core values, through theory of belief education and patriotism education, cultivate national people's prosperity, democracy, civility, harmony at the national level, value orientation, firm road, actively practice, promote the development of the socialist cause China characteristics, contribute to the formation of vivid situation of prosperous economy and democratic politics, civilization and harmonious society.

It can be seen that both sports spirit and socialist core values focus on economic, political, cultural and social development, pay attention to the spirit of patriotism.

The practice of sports spirit in sports practice, to the law as the criterion, in order to build a harmonious social environment as the goal, and actively cultivate the free and fair competition, and mutual respect, equality and justice of the concept of the rule of law. As a part of civil society ethics, law-abiding in sports performance is to strictly abide by the rules of sports competition, respect the opponent, the referee and the audience, with sports ethics, do justice and the rule of law in sports and sports management, embody the equality and freedom. Practice the socialist core values, through legal education, law education and national unity and progress of education to cultivate people's national freedom, equality, justice, rule of law and the social value orientation, adhere to the Marx doctrine of equality, adhere to social fairness and justice, uphold the rule of innovation, fostering good social mentality, and strive to build a harmonious social environment .
