I . The concept of city culture brand and its significance

City culture is a cultural patterns which with the city's own characteristics and created by the city's citizens in the long-term production, life, work together. Is the sum of city living environment, way of life and customs. City culture brand is the distinctive characteristics formed by a city historical and cultural traditions, social and cultural activities, cultural products, cultural atmosphere, easy to represent the city at home and abroad, and the public mind form an overall impression and evaluation, to identify people image representation. Every city should have it's distinctive cultural brand. Because brand is the life force, and competitive power in the condition of market economy. It is no exception for a city. To shape the brand, create a "selling point", is the route one must take that a city want to win the competition and the development. Culture is one of the important reasons for the formation of city brand. Different city always resulting in the attraction of the city is different, resulting in the competitive power is different. This is because that the formation of the difference of the culture of the city image is different.

II . Problems and ideas in the construction of Wuhan city culture brand

In the famous city of China, such as Shanghai have the Shanghai Culture, Beijing have the Beijing culture, and Guangzhou have the ningnan culture. There are other cities such as Dalian football culture, Qingdao beer culture, and Weifang kite culture and so on. The distinctive feature of the city culture brand make people to have a deep impression on the city, and the city will have increased the attractiveness and competitiveness of intangible, promoted the development of the city.

Wuhan will to show what kind of culture this is the Wuhan has been constantly exploring, but has yet to find a satisfactory answer. Wuhan as the fulcrum of the rise of central China, Not only to achieve growth in economy, but also create the cultural brand of Wuhan city. The culture is a country's "soft power" to reflect, also is the integration of agent between various kinds of "hard power", once the "soft power" development, all aspects will better and faster development. Wuhan is a historical and cultural city with a long cultural heritage, At the same time it is the capital of Hupei province and the political, economic, and cultural center, and the middle reaches of the Yangtze River, the north-south traffic hub.

Wuhan culture as a part of the Chu culture, has a long history of the 3500 years, Accumulated a rich cultural background such as Wuhan is Panlong City, Huang Village, Shouyi shrine, a king Yu combating the flood, Qu Yuan's troubadour, Boya guqin, Li Bai sang and Chu opera, Han Opera, shadow play, Han Embroidery……But perhaps the culture resource is too rich, but difficult to focus, cause we have no representative of Wuhan cultural card of a city, can not build Wuhan city culture brand. For a long time Wuhan try to builded the Chu culture as city culture brand, but the effect is not satisfactory. This is because, compared to other types of regional culture, Chu culture independented development period as early as 2000 years ago. The lack of other regional culture, such as culture in south of the Five Ridges has a good historical continuity, This greatly weakened the Chu culture brand. Therefore, Wuhan must explore other attractive characteristic culture, strive to build the city culture brand. Horse racing, as the representative of the horse culture as part of Wuhan culture, has its own distinctive features and great influence. Therefore, should take the horse racing as a foundation of city culture brand, leading the Wuhan city culture brand construction.
